

N.E.W.S.® Manager As a Team Navigator

Developing leaders to be able to lead teams through changes, with a high-level of alignment and engagement.

For senior managers or group leaders, to be able to lead integrated participative teams

Lead your team as one aligned unit.

An innovative 16-hour intensive high-level workshop to develop participative leadership. Based on the NEWS Compass®, it equips experienced managers with core leadership capabilities to effectively navigate their teams together through changes and challenges, inspiring and engaging them.

"It was a targeted and successful workshop given the magnitude of the task. Absolutely met my expectations and many valuable opportunities and tools discussed."
